Age: Adult

Reward: no

Location: Raleigh, 411 Gardner Street

Description: Friendly black cat, medium-sized, possibly a pregnant female? Her mammary glands appear a bit swollen but I couldn't get a close look. She has a solid meow and is persistent and has started hanging around even though I haven't fed her. She appears to be eating, she looks to be a healthy size or a tad overweight/ pregnant. She has pretty yellow eyes and will even come visit and sit on my lap. You can really see the red in her black coat when the sunlight hits it.
